

Losing Face with MySpace

Learn strategies to safeguard your teen or preteen from the hazards of MySpace or Facebook.

When: Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Where: Lewiston Middle School Auditorium

Time: 6:30pm

Information or pictures posted on a MySpace or Facebook page can:

- Result in removal from a sport team or other extracurricular activity
- Cause scholarships to be lost or rescinded
- Cause a job or college opportunity to be taken away
- Can ruin a reputation*

Parents, Students, Advisors, Coaches, Athletes:

Please come to presentation by Detective Inez Dudley

A forensics investigator for the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit, Detective Dudley will address the pitfalls in using a social networking program, like MySpace and what precautions can be used to stay safe.

Supporting Panelists:

Billie Jo Brito: Lewiston Middle School's Aspiration Coordinator will share how to avoid having a student's dreams lost because of MySpace.

Vicky Wiegman: High School and Middle School Substance Abuse Counselor will address how drugs and alcohol put students in a compromising situation, it happens more frequently than you think.

Officer Bill Brochu: Lewiston Middle School's Resource Officer will speak on how Lewiston Police Department addresses cyber-bullying issues.

David Marshall: Lewiston Middle School's Computer teacher will speak on how parents need to be aware of how the laptop or computer is used outside of school hours.

Information in cyberspace does not go away, MySpace is really Everyone's Space.

For more information, please contact LMS Parent Teacher Partnership Organization member Tracey Blaisdell via email tblaisdell@lewistonpublicschools.org or phone: 795-4180.